ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Entry is free and can be submitted through this website between the entry open and entry close dates, 21 January and 21 March 2022.

Only one entry will be accepted per artist.

Submissions must include all artwork details and professional standard photography of the work.

The definition of an emerging artist for this prize is an artist who has completed tertiary study or formal training within the last five years; every other applicant will be considered an established artist.

To be eligible, an artist must be an Australian or New Zealand citizen or resident of any kind, including temporary resident; must be over 18, and must not be an immediate family member of the prize judges or donors.

Artists who are employed by or affiliated with sponsors of the JamFactory are not excluded, and are encouraged to enter.

The entry must be predominantly glass but may incorporate other materials, functional or non-functional, free-standing, wall-mounted or suspended (with a weight limit for any work requiring suspension of 8kg).

It will be the responsibility of the artist, if selected as a finalist, to ship the work to Adelaide, South Australia by 18 April 2022 for the exhibition.

The entered work must have been made in the 24 months prior to entering it into the prize, it must have been in continuous ownership of the artist, and must not have been entered in any other prize or competition.

FINALISTS

Short listing of Finalists will occur in March 2022.

The FUSE Glass Prize will be selected from a group of 12 established artist finalists.

The David Henshall Emerging Artist Prize will be selected from a group of 6 emerging artist finalists.

Finalists will be notified and invited to the Opening Night of the FUSE Exhibition on 12 May 2022 in Adelaide, South Australia; where the winners will be announced.

THE EXHIBITION

All finalists will have their work exhibited at JamFactory in Adelaide before touring to Canberra Glassworks and the Australian Design Centre in Sydney.

Works will be available for sale to the public and if unsold will be returned to the artist in November 2022.
